From: Philippines

To: Dutch Caribbean

Visa Type: Philippines Dutch Caribbean Business Visa

Thank you for your order

The following documents are required to apply for this specific visa type.

Personal Appearance

As from 10 October 2010 the Kingdom of the Netherlands in the Caribbean will consist of the islands of Aruba, Curacao, Bonaire, St Eustatius and Saba, and part of the island of St Martin (St Maarten)

A visa for the Dutch Caribbean is not valid for the part of the Kingdom in Europe (the Netherlands), which is part of the Schengen Area

Applications for a visa for the Dutch Caribbean have to be made in person and can only be submitted at the visa section of the Netherlands Embassy in London or at one of the Netherlands consulates

People travelling on a passport that requires a visa for the Dutch Caribbean will have to submit the same documents as for a Schengen visa. Spouses and/or children of European Union nationals will also have to submit the full set of documents. All applicants, including spouses and/or children of EU-nationals, will have to pay a non-refundable visa handling fee. Visas2 is unable to assist in this instance. Please contact the Embassy to verify the latest requirements before confirming travel arrangements:

Disclaimer:

Please note that we are not an Embassy and are not affiliated with any government. In almost all cases embassies charge a fee for visas. If we handle your application, we also charge a fee in return for advising on the requirements, helping to prepare your application, and sending a courier to queue up on your behalf to obtain and/or collect the visa. The forms and services we provide are available from the government or official source for free or lower cost. If you wish to apply directly to the relevant embassy.
