Appointment System

The Ghana High Commission operates an appointment-based system for submitting visa applications. Applicants must first complete the online application via the official website (see instructions) and select an available appointment date. Visas2 will then attend the scheduled appointment on the applicant's behalf to submit the application.

Visa processing times are determined by the service level selected during the application process and commence from the date of the appointment. Visas are typically issued within:

1 working day (24-hour express service)

3 working days (72-hour express service)

5 to 7 working days (standard service)

Please note that the current waiting time to secure an appointment is approximately 3 to 4 weeks. Early preparation is strongly advised.

Visa Information:

This visa allows UK citizens and residents to enter Ghana once for tourism within a three-month validity period from the date of issuance. The permitted duration of stay is endorsed by Ghana Immigration upon arrival and typically ranges from 30 to 60 days.

Visa processing is strictly by appointment.
